Semester Schedule: The weekly schedule can be found by checking the calendar on the class website. A schedule listing university holidays, drop deadline and other important dates is found online at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/dates-deadlines/2021-2022/#fall21text>

Course description: Course description: SPC 3331 – Nonverbal Communication is a three-credit course. This class will cover various aspects of nonverbal communication such as:

Basics of nonverbal communication

- Touch (Haptics)
- Personal Space, Territory and Environment (Proxemics)
- Physical Appearance
- Body Alterations and Coverings
- Kinesics (movement)
- Vocalics (paralanguage)
- The application of nonverbal communication in various contexts

This course may be different from many you have taken in college. This is primarily because you are actively and daily engaged in the subject matter of this communication course. You have already had much experience, and you will likely want to share those experiences with the rest of the class. In addition, you may also bring to this class some preconceived expectations of this class. Discussion will be encouraged.

Course Text:

Nonverbal Communication: Studies and Applications, 6th edition, 2014, by Hickson, Stacks and Moore. This text is available at most bookstores supplying the university. You are responsible for having access to this text no later than Sunday, Aug 29, 2021, in order to complete assignments and quizzes.

Course requirements

Internet Access and your Gatorlink Email Address that you should check on a regular basis. (For any questions on this policy, please see the Computer Requirements as discussed under the General Requirements in the University catalog or UF Computer and Software Requirements on the web.), access to the Internet, and MS Word (or other word processing software that is compatible with MS Word).

Course Objectives

- As a student, you can expect to increase the range of options available to you in nonverbal communication. In the personal effectiveness approach, this is referred to as the development of the communication repertoire. The more options you have, the more likely you are to make effective choices.
- You can also expect to increase your ability to analyze communication situations. Enhanced personal effectiveness is dependent upon understanding situations and what is needed for successful interaction in those situations.
- As odd as it may sound, you can also expect to be able to make more reasoned and reasonable choices regarding nonverbal communication.
- Last, in addition to learning new information, you can expect to acquire new and/or improved communication skills.

COURSE POLICIES

ATTENDANCE: Attendance will be taken daily at the beginning of class using the Roll Call function in eLearning. (If you are unavoidably late, please make sure you see me at the end of class to mark you as present. You may monitor your attendance in eLearning.) A student learns from listening, participating, discussing and observing. Therefore, attendance is expected for all class meeting days. To encourage uninterrupted participation in class, it is expected that cell phones will be silenced, and audio devices be turned off prior to entering the classroom, unless it is required for class work that day. Please eat your lunch and make your bathroom stops prior to arriving in class.

More than three unexcused absences of any kind will result in a grade penalty of 20 points of your final grade for each absence. Two tardies equal one unexcused absence. Leaving class early is the equivalent of a tardy.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS: Late assignments or make-ups will not be permitted without a University-approved absence.

LATE POLICY: Assignments not turned in on the due date are considered late. There is a one week (7 calendar days) grace period to turn in late assignments for partial credit, after which, your work will not be accepted and you will receive a zero for that assignment. The penalty for late assignments turned in during the grace period is as follows:

- Minus 1 point per day for assignments up to 30 points.
- Minus 2 points per day for assignments from 31-100 points.
- Minus 3 points per day for assignments from 101 – 200 points.

This late policy does not apply to Chapter Quizzes. There is no grace period nor is there any make-up policy for Chapter Quizzes. If you miss a Chapter Quiz, you will receive a zero for that assignment.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION: Unless otherwise indicated, assignments should be submitted through the course website by 11:59 PM on the due date. Do not wait until the last minute to turn in an assignment because of the possibility of technical difficulties.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

The activities require all group members to be present. However, if you miss an activity day for a documentable, excused reason, you may have the opportunity to make up the points by writing a short paper (3-5 pages, double-spaced) that includes a bibliography with at least 3 sources (one source may be your textbook), on the concept that the activity demonstrates. This paper is due the following class period for full credit. Acceptable reasons for absences are personal or family illness or emergency. Oversleeping, missing the bus, or just not feeling like attending are not acceptable excuses. For excused absences, you will be required to provide written documentation.

You are expected to be in attendance on days your group presents. There will be no make-ups for missed group presentations.

READINGS: Students are responsible for all the assigned readings. See the course calendar for reading due dates.

UF POLICIES

ACCOMMODATIONS: University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities: Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Disability Resource Center (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>). The DRC will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive; therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations.

ACADEMIC HONOR CODE: Students are expected to uphold the Academic Honor Code published in the Undergraduate Catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/>) Please become familiar with the policies of the Honor Code (<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/>) as all violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office. Research misconduct, such as plagiarism or cheating, will result in an automatic failing grade for the assignment.

NETIQUETTE: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions, and chats. All members are expected to follow these guidelines: <http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf>.

GETTING HELP

For issues with technical difficulties for E-learning in Sakai, please contact the UF Help Desk at:

COURSE EVALUATIONS

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open.

Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>.

Any questions regarding the planning, administering and teaching of SPC 3331 should be discussed with me individually. As needed, questions can be discussed further with Dr. Emily Rine Butler, Director, Dial Center for Written & Oral Communication.
